

WARHAMMER 40,000 CODEX:

HARLEQUINS

Official Update for 7th Edition, Version 1.0

Although we strive to ensure that our rules are perfect, sometimes mistakes do creep in, or the intent of a rule isn't as clear as it might be. These documents collect amendments to the rules and present our responses to players' frequently asked questions. As they're updated regularly, each has a version number; when changes are made, the version number will be updated, and any changes from the previous version will be highlighted in magenta. Where a version number has a letter, e.g. 1.1a, this means it has had a local update, only in that language, to clarify a translation issue or other minor correction.

FAQs

Q: Can the Solitaire use both the Harlequin's caress and the Harlequin's kiss (or Cegorach's Rose) to benefit from the Caress of Death and Kiss of Death rules in the same Fight sub-phase?

A: Yes. The Kiss of Death rule applies to a model equipped with a Harlequin's kiss (or Cegorach's Rose), even if the model is not attacking with that weapon. This means that a Solitaire can attack with their Harlequin's caress, with +1 Attack for having two close combat weapons, and one of those attacks will have the Kiss of Death rule. Specifically, that attack will be resolved at Strength 6 AP2. If the Wound roll for that attack is a 6, the attack gains the Instant Death special rule. If the Kiss of Death attack is used against a vehicle, it will benefit from the Caress of Death special rule if the To Hit roll is a 6.

Q: What does a Harlequin Troupe armed with Harlequin's caresses do to a building or immobile vehicle? As you automatically hit does this count as a roll of 6 or is the roll totally ignored?

A: In this situation, roll all of your attacks. None of the attacks will miss, and any rolls of 6 benefit from the Caress of Death rule.

Q: With regards to the Veil of Tears primaris power, how do you resolve a Template or Blast attack if a unit not affected by Veil of Tears is targeted, but the blast marker or template 'accidentally' clips another unit affected by Veil of Tears before rolling for scatter?

A: If the template or blast marker (before scatter) is placed over any models affected by Veil of Tears, the firing unit is considered to be targeting them, and must roll as described in the Veil of Tears psychic power. If a blast scatters onto a unit affected by Veil of Tears the firing unit is not affected.

Q: Can Harlequins use any psychic powers besides witchfire powers while embarked in a Starweaver?

A: No.

Q: Does the Harlequin Masque's Rising Crescendo rule mean that units can be brought in from Reserves in the second turn, then Run and charge in the same turn?

A: No. While Rising Crescendo allows Harlequins to Run and charge in the same turn, it does not specify that this applies even on a turn when they have arrived from Reserves. This means that the usual rule of a unit not being able to charge on the turn it arrives from Reserves still applies.
